

Important Terminology

All personnel involved with LEADATHON 2016 commit to staying constantly vigilant and extremely conscious on all matters regarding the safety and security of your child. The management accepts responsibility for providing a safe environment and basic first aid for all present at the conference and all active participants and observers are expected to take responsibility for performing work in accordance with safe standards and practices provided by the Host Team.

The LEADATHON 2016 organizers, representatives and agents are not responsible or liable for the safety and property of active participants or their companions, nor for any financial losses incurred if events are cancelled due to reasons beyond LEADATHON 2016.

In case of any unforeseen accidents, terrorist/political activities, natural calamities or acts of God beyond the control of LEADATHON 2016 organizers, the LEADATHON 2016 management and representatives will not be held responsible.

Travelling to and from the conference shall take place under the participants' sole responsibility. The LEADATHON 2016 organizers cannot be held responsible for any disturbance that occurs en route to or outside the premises of Edopia. Only legal guardians, who have their names registered with the conference, will be allowed to pick up the children. If anyone other than the parents is coming to pick up the child, he/she must carry a letter of authorization signed by the parents. For School Teams, the Mentor will be responsible for monitoring the pick-up for all Team members.

Any disputes arising with respect to or in connection with the registration and participation in this event shall be finally settled by one arbitrator in accordance with the regulations set forth by LEADATHON 2016 organizers and representatives.

